

Chinese Teacher Programs

Instructional Planning and Strategies

- Teacher as instructional planner in a student-centered classroom
- Classroom management
- Behavioral discipline
- Mentoring systems
- Current thinking and practices on instruction of world languages, including AP Chinese course
- Effective foreign language instructional sequences
- Conceptualizing, designing and planning communication-based instruction
- Basic principles of performance- (or task-) based instruction
- Instructional focus and difficulties for a diverse student population
- Difference between high-school and college teaching
- How to teach tones and pronunciation
- Organizing content and planning for integrated language instruction
- How to organize field trips and cultural/social events