小蝌蚪找妈妈

Little Tad Poles Look for Their Mom
What’s it about?

The “Little Tad Poles Look for Their Mom” is one of the most popular Chinese fairy tales. In this skit, students learn important basic sentence patterns as well as names for different animals and body parts.
Say Hello to the Casts

- Narrator: Jacob
- Little Waves: Lea, Taylor
- Little Goat: Akilah
- Little Rabbit: Jacob
- Little Duck: Christa
- Little Calf: Will
- Little Turtle: Lily
- Five Little Tad Poles: Will, Akilah, Angela, Lily, Kendall
- Big Frog: Briana
We are looking for our mom!
The Little Tad Poles are swimming and swimming.
Little Goat, are you my mom?
Sorry, I’m not your mom. Your mom has big eyes.
Oh, my mom has big eyes!

- Thank you! Bye-bye.
The Little Tad Poles are swimming and swimming.
Little Rabbit, are you my mom?
Sorry, I’m not your mom. Your mom has a large mouth.
Oh, my mom has a large mouth!

- Thank you! Bye-bye.
The Little Tad Poles are swimming and swimming.
Little Duck, are you my mom?
Sorry, I’m not your mom. Your mom has four legs.
Oh, my mom has four legs!
The Little Tad Poles are swimming and swimming.
Little Calf, are you my mom?
Sorry, I’m not your mom. Your mom wears green cloth.
Oh, my mom wears green cloth!

- Thank you! Bye-bye.
The Little Tad Poles are swimming and swimming.
Little Turtle, are you my mom?
Sorry, I’m not your mom.
Your mom likes to sing.
Oh, my mom likes to sing!

- Thank you! Bye-bye.
I am the little tadpoles mom.
Big eyes!
Big mouth!
Four legs!
Green cloth!
We found our mom!