

STARTALK Multimedia Teacher Workshop Collection User Guide for:

Teaching Heritage Languages
University of California, Los Angeles

Description

This workshop discusses issues related to teaching heritage language learners. It consists of seven lessons grouped into two modules: Teaching Heritage Language Learners: Profiles and Definitions, and Strategies for Heritage Language Learners: Differentiated Instruction. It features classroom videos of a face-to-face version of the workshop, interviews with specialists Olga Kagan and Maria Carreira, and interviews with heritage language learners. Videos are accompanied by multiple-choice and short-answer activities. The lessons are:

Module 1: Teaching Heritage Language Learners: Profiles and Definitions

- Lesson 1: What is a Heritage Language?
- Lesson 2: Heritage Language Learners' Motivation
- Lesson 3: Teaching Implications for Heritage Language Learners

Module 2: Strategies for Heritage Language Learners: Differentiated Instruction

- Lesson 4: Why Do We Need Differentiated Instruction for Heritage Language Learners?
- Lesson 5: Know Your Students
- Lesson 6: Grouping Strategies for Differentiated Instruction
- Lesson 7: Assessment Strategies for Differentiated Instruction

Is this workshop right for me?

This workshop is best for teachers of heritage students and teacher trainers of all STARTALK programs. Lessons 5-7 discuss differentiated instruction and are useful for all STARTALK instructors.

Highlights

- Varied, engaging activities
- Interviews with HLLs about their experiences
- Expert videos with Dr. Olga Kagan and Dr. Maria Carreira
- Videos in English with accompanying transcripts in English
- Printable glossary
- Extensive resource links

Keywords

assessment, differentiated instruction, heritage language learners

Approximate Length

3 hours

Technical Requirements

Adobe Flash or Apple QuickTime